

EACGD 2014

Preliminary Symposium on "Corporate Governance: China and the EU"

October 18, 2013 (8:30 am - 15:30 pm)

Venue: No. 2 Meeting Room at Daxuetang, Floor B1, The Lakeview Hotel

8:30 Registration

OPENING CEREMONY

9:00 Host: Li Jin, Professor, Oxford University Said Business School and Guanghua School of Management, Peking University

9:05 Welcome: Hongbin Cai, Dean and Professor of Economics, Guanghua School of Management, Peking University

9:15 Opening remarks: Gerard Hertig, ETH Zurich and Vice-Chairman, ECGI

KEYNOTE SPEECHES

Moderator: Gerard Hertig, ETH Zurich and Vice-Chairman, ECGI

09:30-10:00 Jeroen Hooijer, DG Internal Market and Services, EU Commission
The EU corporate governance framework

10:00-10:30 Liyan Wang, Professor of Accounting at Guanghua School of Management and Director, Center for Responsibility and Social Value, Peking University
Corporate governance in China: A mixed picture

10:30-10:45 Coffee Break

10:40-11:15 Huiyao Wang, Vice-Chairman, Western Returned Scholars Association
Corporate governance in China: Comparative perspectives

11:15-11:30 Li Guo, Professor of Law, Peking University Law School
Corporate Governance in China and the EU: Comments

11:30-11:45 Luh Luh Lan, Associate Professor, Faculty of Law, National University of Singapore
Corporate Governance in China and the EU: Comments

11:45-12:15 Q&A session

PRESENTATIONS

Moderator: Li Jin, Guanghua School of Management, Peking University

13:30-14:00 Petra Hedengran, Managing Director, Investor AB
Board Appointments: The Swedish model

14:00-14:30 Marco Becht, Goldschmidt Professor of Corporate Governance, Solvay Brussels School and Executive Director, ECGI
Board Appointments: The Role of Hedge Funds

14:30-14:50 Kon Sik Kim, Professor, Seoul National University School of Law
Board Appointments: Comments

14:50-15:15 Q&A session

15:15-15:30 Closing remarks: Gerard Hertig, ETH Zurich and Vice-Chairman, ECGI