GRADUATING IN 2015?

See our website for exciting news about interviews for 2014 internships.

SUBMIT an essay between 800 and 1,500 words on one of the following topics:

1. After five years of crises-related monetary expansion what financial assets remain under-priced?
2. Which ASEAN country will see the biggest improvement in its business environment in the next five years? Why?
3. Will the proposed reforms in India's financial, energy and retail sectors really make a difference? Is this 1991 all over again?
4. Are the governance challenges facing China's new leadership really that different from other countries?
5. To what extent do the disputes in the South China Sea constitute a significant threat to stability in the Asia-Pacific region? How can these rivalries be better managed in the future?

ENTRY DEADLINE IS FEBRUARY 10, 2013.
